Tacoma Unit Code of Conduct

We expect each exhibitor, trainer, spectators & any supporting people of all participants to practice good sportsmanship

Sportsmanship is not an act, it is an action. As a duty to yourself, the industry, and others around you, practicing good sportsmanship (even when it's difficult) creates a positive environment where people want to return. Appreciating your competition and winning and/or losing graciously are just the beginning of carrying out your role as good sportsmen and women.

Be considerate. We are all here for the same reason. Be nice to your fellow exhibitor. If you witness inappropriate behavior please contact management

Be respectful. We won't all agree all the time, but disagreement is no excuse for disrespectful behavior.

Choose your words carefully. Be kind to others. Do not insult or put down others. Harassment and belittling of another person will not be tolerated.

Don't harass. In general, if someone asks you to stop something, then stop. If you believe that person is incorrect in asking you to stop please contact management

ALWAYS treat your show management, to include but not limited to show manager, secretaries, ring steward, in gate person & judge, with respect. Yelling, caustic remarks and/or sarcasm will not be tolerated.

KNOW THE RULES! You are responsible to enter the classes you are eligible for.
